THE DAILY ARGUS.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., JUNE 30 1892.

The National Democratic Platform.

The report of the Platform Committee was as follows:

Sec. 1. Representatives of the Democratic party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, do reaffirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by a long and illustrious line of his successors in the Democratic leadership, from Madison to Cleveland. We believe the public welfare demands that these principles be applied to the conduct of the Federal Government through the accession to power of the party that advocates them, and we solemnly declare that the need of a return to these fundamental principles of free popular government, based on home rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now, when the tendency to centralize all power at the Federal Capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the States, and that strikes at the very roots of our Government under the constitution as framed by the fathers of the Republic.

Sec. 2. We warn the people of our country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of Federal control of elections to which the Republican party has committed itself is fraught with the gravest dangers, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revolution, practically establishing monarchy on the ruins of the republic; it strikes at the North as well as at the South and injures the colored citizens more than the white. It means a horde of deputy marshals at every polling place armed with Federal authority, outrage of the electoral right of the people in several States, subjugation of the colored people in control of the party in power, and the reviving of race antagonisms now happily abated. Of the utmost peril to the safety and happiness of all, it is described by a leading Republican Senator as "the most infamous bill that ever passed the threshold of the Senate." Such policy, if sanctioned by law, would mean the domination of a self-perpetuating oligarchy of the officeholders, and party first entrusted with its machinery could be dislodged from power only by an appeal to the reserved rights of the people to resist oppression, which is inherent in all self-governing communities. Two years ago this revolutionary policy was emphatically condemned by the people at the polls, but in contempt of that verdict the Republican party has defiantly declared in its latest authoritative utterance that its success in the coming election will mean enactment of the Force bill and usurpation of despotic control over elections in all the States. Believing that the preservation of a Republican form of government in the United States is dependent upon the defeat of this policy of legalized force and fraud, we invite the support of all citizens who desire to see the Constitution maintained in its integrity with laws purporting thereto, which have given our country an hundred years of unexampled prosperity, and we pledge the Democratic party, if it be entrusted with power, not only to defeat the Force bill, but also to relentless opposition to the Republican policy of profligate expenditure, which, in the short space of two years has squandered an enormous surplus and emptied an overflowing Treasury, after piling new burdens of taxation upon the already overtaxed labor of the country.

Sec. 3. (Substitute offered by the minority and adopted.) We denounce Republican protection as a fraud on the labor of the great majority of the American people, for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be the fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for purposes of revenue only. [Applause and cheers.] And we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the Government when honestly and economically administered. [Applause.] We denounce the McKinley tariff law enacted by the Fifty-first Congress as the culminating atrocity of class legislation. We endorse the efforts made by the Democrats of the present Congress to modify its most oppressive features in the direction of free raw materials and cheaper manufactured goods that enter into general consumption, and we promise its repeal as one of the beneficent results that will follow the action of the people in entrusting power to the Democratic party. Since the McKinley tariff went into operation there have been ten reductions of wages of laboring men to one increase. We deny that there has been any increase of prosperity to the country since that tariff went into operation, and we point to dullness and distress, wage reductions and strikes in the iron trade, as the best possible evidence that no such prosperity has resulted from the McKinley act. We call the attention of thoughtful Americans to the fact that after thirty years of restrictive taxes against importation of foreign wealth in exchange for our agricultural surplus, the homes and farms of the country have become burdened with a real estate mortgage debt of over $2,500,000,000, exclusive of all other forms of indebtedness; that in one of the chief agricultural States of the West there appear real estate mortgage debts averaging $165 per capita of the total population, and that a similar condition and tendency are shown to exist in the agricultural States. We denounce the policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the sheriff

Sec. 4. Trade interchange on the basis of reciprocal advantages to the countries participating is a time-honored doctrine of the Democratic faith, but we denounce sham reciprocity, which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets and pretends to establish closer trade relations for a country whose articles of export are almost exclusively agricultural products, with other countries that are also agricultural, while erecting the custom-house barrier of prohibition taxes against the richest countries of the world that stand ready to take our entire surplus of products and to exchange therefor commodities which are necessities and the comforts of life among our own people.

Sec. 5. We recognize in trusts and combinations, which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor, the natural consequence of prohibitive taxes, which prevent free competition which is the life of honest trade; but we believe these evils can be abated by law, and we demand a rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them, together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

Sec. 6. The Republican party, while professing a policy of reserving public lands for small holdings by actual settlers, has given away the people's heritage till now a few railroads and non-resident aliens, individual or co-operate, possess a larger area than that of all our farms between the two seas. The last Democratic Administration reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican party touching the public domain and reclaimed from corporations and syndicates—alien and domestic—and restored to the people, nearly one hundred million acres of valuable ground, to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens; and we pledge ourselves to continue this policy until every acre of land so unlawfully held, shall be reclaimed and restored to the people.

Sec. 7. We denounce Republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890, as a cowardly make-shift wrought with possibilities of danger in the future, which should make all its supporters, well as its authors, anxious for its speedy repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver as standard money of the country, and to coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit for coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and unchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement or by such safe-guards of legislation as shall insure maintenance of parity of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the market and in the payment of debts, and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of farmers and laboring classes—the first and most defenceless victims of unstable money and fluctuating currency.

Sec. 8. We recommend that the prohibitory ten per cent. on tax on State bank issues be repealed.

Sec. 9. Public office is a public trust. We reaffirm the declaration of the Democratic National Convention of 1876, for reform of the civil service and we call for honest enforcement of all laws regulating the same. The nomination of President, as in the recent Republican Convention, by delegations composed largely of his appointees, having office at his pleasure, is a scandalous satire upon a free people's institutions and a startling illustration of the methods by which the President may gratify his ambition. We denounce the policy under which Federal office holders usurp control of party conventions in the States, and we pledge the Democratic party to reform these and all other abuses which threaten individual liberty and local self government.

Sec. 10. The Democratic party is the only party that has given the country a foreign policy, consistent and vigorous, compelling respect abroad and inspiring confidence at home. While avoiding entangling alliances, it has aimed to cultivate friendly relations with other nations, and especially with our neighbors on the American continent, whose destiny is closely linked with our own, and we view with alarm the tendency to a policy of irritation and bluster which is liable at any time to confront us with the alternative of humiliation or war. We favor the maintenance of a navy strong enough for all purposes of national defence and to properly maintain the honor and dignity of the country abroad.

Sec. 11. Condemns the oppression practiced by the Russian Government upon its Lutheran and Jewish subjects, and calls on the Government to use its best efforts to bring about a cessation of these cruel persecutions.

Sec. 12. Demands rigid enforcement of laws against Chinese immigration and the importation of foreign workmen under contract.

Sec. 13. It favors just and liberal pensions for all disabled Union soldiers, their wives and dependents, and denounces the present administration of the pension office as corrupt, disgraceful and dishonest.

Sec. 14. Favors aid to river and harbor improvements.

Sec. 15. Recognizes the importance of the Nicaragua canal and its protection against foreign control.

Sec. 16. Favors financial aid by Congress to the World's Columbian Exposition.

Sec. 17. Is in relation to public schools, recommending liberal State aid and non-interference with parental rights and rights of conscience.

Sec. 18. Favors admission of Territories having necessary population and revenues, and that officials should be bona fide residents of Territories.

Sec. 19. Favors legislation to protect the lives and limbs of railway employees and other hazardous transportation companies.

Sec. 20. Favors enactment of State laws for abolition of contract convict labor, and for prohibiting employment in factories of children under fifteen years of age.

Sec. 22. Opposes all sumptuary laws.

8.02 p. m.—Mr. Watterson denounced the tariff plank in the platform as a straddle, that should not be reported.

Mr. Jones, of Missouri, said the committee accepts the amendment of the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. Neal, and a motion to substitute the minority tariff plank for that in the majority report made by Mr. Neal was adopted.

8.58—Mr. Patterson, of Colorado, took the platform to present a substitute for the silver plank in the majority report. Mr. Patterson advocated changing the coinage plank to read free coinage of gold and silver, the unit to be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value. Mr. Patterson was frequently interrupted.

The motion to adopt the substitute for the silver plank was lost, and the platform was adopted.

On the first ballot the vote stood as follows:
Cleveland 6174, Hill, 112; Boies, 203; Gorman, 364; Stevenson, 164; Morrison, 5; Carlisle, 15; Campbell, 1; Patterson, 1; Whitney, 1; Russell, 1.

3.44 a. m.—Texas changed her vote to Cleveland—30.

West Virginia and Maryland changed, 11 and 16 votes respectively, for Cleveland.

Ohio moved the rules be suspended and Cleveland be made the nominee by acclamation. Daniel of Virginia seconded the motion. Cheering all over the hall. The galleries still crowded.

Mr. Flower seconded the motion to make the nomination unanimous.

The motion to suspend the rules and declare Cleveland the nominee by acclamation was carried.
